Lighthouse ArtCenter Awaits "One Magical Evening"

Tequesta, Fla. (January 14, 2011) — The thrill is back: Art-lovers and supporters prepare to dance the night away at the Lighthouse ArtCenter's 47th Annual Beaux Arts Ball. The black-tie event will match years-past in elegance, fine-dining, cocktails and entertainment provided by the Bob Hoose Orchestra. There will also be a silent auction offering guests the opportunity to bid on a plethora of hot-ticket items, including luxurious vacations, golf excursions, and dining experiences. This year, the Beaux Arts Ball will be on March 5, 2011 at Frenchman's Reserve Country Club in Palm Beach Gardens.

2011 Beaux Arts Ball co-chair GG Dube calls the event a must-attend. "You'll dance the night away," she said, citing the high-energy musical numbers for which the Bob Hoose Orchestra is widely-known. Dube, co-chair alongside her husband Dr. Richard Dube, has been involved in the beneficiary organization, Lighthouse ArtCenter, since 2001.

Proceeds of the Beaux Arts Ball will help support the Lighthouse ArtCenter's extensive programming at the Museum and School of Art, which provide enrichment in the arts to the local community and its visitors through museum exhibitions, art classes, and events. The ArtCenter also provides thousands of youth and elderly with access to the arts through its ArtBridge outreach and scholarship programs.

The Beaux Arts Ball is from 6:30 to 11:00 p.m. Tickets are $250 per person, if postmarked before January 31, 2011, or $275 per person afterwards. To purchase, call (561) 746-3101 or visit LighthouseArts.org.
