

The 48th Annual Beaux Arts Ball presents

Café Beaux Arts - Where Life Imitates Art

Beaux Arts Ball Chairs Malcolm and Dorothy MacKenzie

Venture into Café Beaux Arts, the excitement of Paris and its painters. Become one with a masterpiece as you step into the painting, indulge yourself with gourmet dining, dancing, French entertainment and artistic fun.

Saturday, March 3, 2012

Lighthouse ArtCenter Museum
373 Tequesta Drive
Tequesta, Florida

Cocktails and Silent Auction begin at half past six o'clock in the evening;
Dinner, Dancing at eight o'clock.

Spponsors

Mission Capital Advisors, Northern Trust, South Florida Radiation Oncology, Barbara Kirsch, Malcolm & Dorothy MacKenzie, Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, Mason & Gil Walsh, Wally & Evelyne Bates, DEX Imaging, Dr. David Lickstein and WJTW 100.3 FM

Please call about Table Sponsor and Underwriting Opportunities.

Café Beaux Arts Committee

Gerri Aurre, Carolyn Austin, Susan Bardin, Evelyne Bates, Julie Silk Beaumont, Andrea Cleveland, Cathy Helowicz, Mary Imle, Denise LeClair-Robbins, Rosalie Roush, Katie Deits, Executive Director and Sheila McDonald Bell, Director of Events

Bistro Attire with a French Flair
Kindly reply by February 25, 2012

Tickets: $275 per person
Table of Eight: $2,100, Table of Ten: $2,600
Connoisseur Tickets: $500 per person, include Vip seating & program listing

Call (561) 746-3101,
or purchase online
LighthouseArts.org

The Beaux Arts Ball is the Lighthouse ArtCenter's most important fundraising event. Proceeds help to sustain museum-quality exhibitions, the School of Art, ArtReach programs and other cultural activities. The Lighthouse ArtCenter is a nonprofit 501 (c) (3) charitable organization, and contributions are tax-deductible to the extent provided by law.