

BOARD OF DIRECTORS 2012

President: Colette K. Meyer, Esq.

Vice President: Mason Walsh, Jr.

Secretary: Susan S. Bardin, ASID

Treasurer: Frederick B. Putney

Immediate Past President: Susan Namm Spencer

Andrea L. Cleveland

David Click, Esq.

René Friedman

Audrey Harris, Esq.

Donaldson E. Hearing

Cathy Helowicz

Dr. Elise Hillmann

Lyn Ianuzzi

Barbara Kirsch

Malcolm MacKenzie

Alex Morton

Elizabeth Neuhoff

Jane O'Neill

Dr. Anne Palumbo

Ruth Petzold

Rosalie Roush

Roseanne Williams

2012 BOARD OF DIRECTOR BIOS

Mrs. Susan Bardin, ASID

Secretary A resident of Tequesta, Susan is Vice President and Director of Interior Design at Peacock + Lewis, AIA. She holds a bachelor's degree in Interior Design from the University of Florida and has provided design services for many corporate, educational, hospitality, and health-care facilities for over 25 years. Susan is a licensed Interior Designer in the State of Florida and a professional member of the American Society of Interior Designers.

Mrs. Andrea L. Cleveland

Andrea Cleveland is a native of Royal Oak, Michigan, and grew up the middle child in a family of seven children. She graduated from the University of Maine (B.S Social Work, 1978) and earned her Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Tennessee. In Memphis she had a private practice as a geriatric case manager. She is married to Dr. John Cleveland and has one daughter, Joanna.

Andi has served on many boards throughout her career, including Frederick County, Maryland Community Housing Board; Hartley House (a battered women's shelter); St. Jude's Women's Club Memphis (served as president for six years); and Sister Ruthann program for learning-disabled children. She was the first volunteer of the year to receive the Sheryl K Neihuis award for outstanding service at St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital. Since moving to Jupiter in 2006, Andi has been an avid community activist, maintaining important volunteer work with El Sol Neighborhood Resource Center, such as supervising kitchen inventory and organizing El Sol Artfest, and serving on various committees for Lighthouse ArtCenter fundraising events.

Mr. David Click, Esq.

Tequesta resident and local attorney David Click has been serving clients in Palm Beach County since 1984 and is one of 350 attorneys in Florida who are certified in wills, trusts and estates. David is president of the Yale Club of the Palm Beaches, Scholarship Chairman of the Jupiter-Tequesta Kiwanis Club, a past director of the Lighthouse Gallery Foundation and a member of the Planned Giving Committee of Jupiter Medical Center. He is also a graduate of Leadership Palm Beach County and a member of the Palm Beach County Sports Commission. He is a past president of the Palm Beach County Estate Planning Council, and a recipient of the Cultural Activities Award of the Palm Beach County Bar Association.

Mrs. René Friedman

René Friedman, Executive Director of Florida Atlantic University's Lifelong Learning Society, developed the program on the Palm Beach Gardens campus, which began in 1997. Today, the program has more than 7,000 students and is located on the Jupiter FAU campus.

René was born and raised in Chicago and moved to Tampa for post-graduate work at the University of South Florida. She came to Florida Atlantic University from Tallahassee, where for seven years she planned and implemented programs at Florida State University's Center for Professional Development and Continuing Education. Previously, she owned and operated a pottery retail business and taught pottery in Tampa.

René served as chairman of Tampa's Gasparilla Sidewalk Art Festival, judge of National Scholastic Art Awards for Polk and Hillsborough Counties, and pre-juror for ArtiGras. Her board positions have included: Art and Science Museum in Tallahassee; The Abused Children's Home, Tampa; Tallahassee Marine Institute; and MacArthur State Park.

Ms. Audrey Harris, Esq.

A resident of Abacoa, Audrey is a partner with the law firm of Jeck, Harris, Raynor & Jones. She is a member of the Florida Bar and Illinois Bar, and practices in the areas of Estate Planning and Estate/Trust Administration. She is a member of the Palm Beach County Bar Association, Palm Beach/Martin County Estate Planning Council, Jupiter Medical Center Foundation's Planned Giving Committee and served as the Lighthouse ArtCenter Foundation's President, 1998-2000. She volunteers as a Guardian Ad Litem. Her interests include art, music, gardening, reading, yoga and travel.

Ms. Cathy Helowicz

Cathy Helowicz grew up near Annapolis, Maryland. She pursued international studies in school and worked in computer science with the National Security Agency for 17 years before she finally got the chance to pursue her lifelong dream of becoming an author.

Cathy is now a writer and publisher of children's books, aside from managing a computer consulting business. When she isn't engaging in her love for the arts, Cathy enjoys giving back to the community. Her volunteer service includes serving 10 years as an assistant instructor at the Maryland Therapeutic Riding Center in Annapolis, Maryland, as well as helping with their many fundraising activities. She currently serves on the board for the MdDS Balance Disorder Foundation and is the President of her HOA. In addition to serving on several committees for the Lighthouse ArtCenter, Cathy was the Chair for D'Art for Art 2010 and 2011.

Mr. Donaldson Hearing

A resident of Jupiter, Mr. Hearing is an owner and Vice President of Cotleur & Hearing Landscape Architects, Land Planners and Environment Consultants, and is considered an expert in his field. He also serves as Vice President and Director of Cotleur & Hearing Investments, a real estate and development company. Mr. Hearing was named 2010 Landscape Architect of the Year by the Palm Beach Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. Mr. Hearing serves on the Executive Boards for the Northern Palm Beach County Chamber of Commerce and the Economic Council of Palm Beach County. Mr. Hearing is a Board member for the Borland Center for Community Enrichment and the PGA Corridor Association.

Dr. Elise Hillmann

Dr. Hillmann is an alumna of Harvard College with a medical doctorate from Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis and carries triple board certification. Her solo medical practice specializes in Age Management Medicine, Dermatology and Dermatopathology in Jupiter. She and her husband Dr. Jeffrey Hillmann have avidly supported various nonprofit organizations over the years and she has been a member-student of the LAC for 10 years, taking instruction in the media of watercolor, pastels and acrylics. She was former Chairperson of the Pink and White Ball for the Jupiter

Medical Center and 2010 sponsor of Dominos Cat Rescue League, Palm City.

Mrs. Lyn Ianuzzi

Lyn Ianuzzi was born and raised in the New York Metropolitan Area and attended St. Peters College in Englewood Cliffs, N.J. She had a lengthy business career in fashion and hospitality in Manhattan, including working for Madison Square Garden, Hilton Hotels, Jacob Javits Convention Center and trade show businesses, such as the National Board Show and Cosmo Expo/PrimePack.

Lyn and her husband Ralph Ianuzzi, Sr., reside in the Town of Jupiter Island, as well as in Bergen County, New Jersey. In 2009, the couple chaired the Jupiter Medical Center's Pink and White Ball and serve on the ball's committee every year. Lyn has also served on the Beaux Arts Ball committee, chairs the ArtyBras event and has served as a docent. For seven years, Lyn was a board member of the Jupiter Island Residents Association and was liaison for the Association serving on the town's Beautification Committee. She is a member of the Jupiter Island Garden Club and the Loxahatchee Guild. Lyn and Ralph are members of the Loxahatchee Club and the Rockland Country Club in Sparkill, N.Y.

Mrs. Barbara Kirsch

A resident of Jupiter (and Harbor Springs, Mich.), Barbara graduated from Michigan State University with a B.S degree. When she lived in Michigan, she served on the Board and was Chair of the Arts Council.

Mr. Malcolm MacKenzie

Scotland-native Malcolm MacKenzie is an artist, photographer and former owner of Scottish-founded New England printing company, Finlay Printing, which he led to a large expansion prior to his retirement in 1994.

Malcolm has served as the Director of the National Printing Industry Association, and was the President of the Connecticut and western Massachusetts Printing Industry Association. These days Malcolm's focus is largely on art and photography, and he's been featured in several group and solo exhibitions. He is highly involved in the Lighthouse ArtCenter, having participated extensively as a volunteer and docent, and has enjoyed award-winning success in both the Wildlife Photography and Member/Student Exhibitions.

Ms. Colette K. Meyer, Esq., Board of Directors President

Colette K. Meyer established Meyer Law Firm in 1998 after having been counsel to the international law firm of Donovan, Leisure, Newton & Irvine, in their Palm Beach, Florida, office. Prior to her position with Donovan Leisure, she was associated with the New York law firm of Mudge Rose Guthrie Alexander & Ferdon and the Jupiter, Florida, office of Nixon, Hargrave, Devans & Doyle. Ms. Meyer has over twenty years of legal experience in South Florida.

Ms. Meyer's practice is focused on assisting families with Trust and Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Administration, and Real Estate Matters. Ms. Meyer has extensive expertise in real estate matters, as well as U.S. and international estate planning and trust and estate administration matters. She has also been active in Florida probate and fiduciary litigation matters, including contested guardianship matters. Ms. Meyer is co-author of "Practical Guidance in Charitable Remainder Trust Planning for Residential Real Property" (Tax Management Estates, Gifts and Trusts Journal, 1996)

Ms. Meyer received her undergraduate degree from Carleton College (B.A. 1981) and her law degree from the University of Wisconsin (J.D. 1985). She is admitted to practice law in Florida and Wisconsin. She is both a U.S. and Swiss citizen. She has served as pro bono legal counsel for several Palm Beach County charitable organizations.

Mr. Alex Morton

Alex Morton worked in the advertising and marketing business for over 35 years in New York City and Detroit, where he promoted clients in various industries including retail, automotive, media and banking along with products such as household goods and appliances. Upon retiring from the agency business, he worked as a consultant for the Professional Golf Association and later became their Vice President of Marketing.

Alex has served on a number of boards, and currently serves on the Board of Governors at the Jupiter Hills Club.

Mrs. Elizabeth Neuhoff

Beth is a native of Missouri and resides in Jupiter with her husband, Geoff. Beth received her B.A. in French and Art History from the University of Oklahoma. She worked in media for fifteen years, creating non-traditional media campaigns. Currently, she's involved in many philanthropic endeavors. Beth serves on the Board of Bear Necessities Pediatric Cancer Foundation in Chicago and volunteers with several area non-profits, including the North Palm Beach Chapter of the American Heart Association, Jupiter Medical Center, Palm Beach Literacy Coalition, the Maltz Jupiter Theatre, and the Loggerhead Marinelife Center. She is also a member of the Executive Women of the Palm Beaches.

Mrs. Jane O'Neill

Jane is one of our newer members at Lighthouse ArtCenter, and has been involved in our volunteer program, taken a number of classes and is a very accomplished artist. She received her formal education in Pennsylvania and has a M.S. in Special Education and a B.S. in Education. She has over 25 years of teaching experience in the public school system in Pennsylvania and Ohio. She has always enjoyed being involved in the arts and has various cultural affiliations in Pennsylvania, New York and Florida, serving in some capacity as either a volunteer or as a member. Jane and her husband reside here and in Doylestown, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Anne Cannon Palumbo

A resident of Jupiter Island (and Maryland), Anne is an art historian who received her Ph.D. from the University of Maryland in 1982. Her career includes: professional lecturer, Department of Art, George Washington University; Smithsonian Fellow, Smithsonian Museum of American Art; and director, Art in Public Places, Prince George's County, Maryland.

She has been a board member of many nonprofits, including: Maryland State Arts Council, 1994-present; Maryland Hall for the Creative Arts (Annapolis), 2002-present; Art Program, University of Maryland, University College, 1999-Present (Chair 01-02); Prince George's County Art Council, 1986-99 (Chair 1989-90); Prince George's Community College Foundation, 2001-Present. Anne has served as curator of exhibitions for the Musee des Arts Decoratifs (Paris), New York Public Library, Smithsonian Associates and Emory University. She also lectures and instructs courses for the National Gallery of Art (Washington, D.C), Smithsonian Associates, and the Lighthouse ArtCenter.

Ms. Ruth Petzold

Born in Michigan, Ruth turned her passion for nature and photography into her life's work. From wildlife in Africa to the undersea world of the Pacific Rim, her love for the natural world has taken her to exotic and remote parts of the world in pursuit of her subject matter. In the Islands, a new dive site was named after her: "Ruthie's Ridge."

A renowned photographer with many awards to her credit, Ruth's work has been exhibited in the Cleveland Museum of Natural History, the Vero Beach Museum of Art, the Crooked Tree Art Center in Petoski, Michigan, and in our own Lighthouse ArtCenter. Her work has appeared in the Natural History of Fishes and other scientific publications with Dr. Eugene Clark. She has won several awards from: The American Society of Media Photographers; The Crooked Tree Art Center; and a gold medal for International Underwater Photography in Egypt.

Mr. Frederick B. Putney

Frederick Putney was born in Missoula, Montana, and attended the University of Washington. He served in the U.S. Navy for five years following graduation before obtaining his Ph.D. from Stanford University. Mr. Putney served on the faculty of Columbia Business School for 30 years, originating a course in Investment Strategies and additionally serving as Deputy Vice President for the Health Services Campuses of the university. He is the co-founder of Riverside Group, which provides corporate training and development to major institutions and non-profit organizations. He also co-founded Brownson & Associates (Brownson, Rehmus & Foxwoth's predecessor organization) in 1969, having developed the proprietary "Base Case" software, still used today by BRF in its updated version.

Mr. Putney currently serves as the investment strategist for BRF, aside from serving approximately fifty individual clients as well as a large portion of the Harvard Business School faculty in a special financial advisory program.

Mrs. Rosalie Roush

Rosalie Roush grew up in the Boston area and attended Brandeis University. She has been an active fundraiser and volunteer for the past 20 years in various cities, assisting social service agencies, including Seagull Industries, schools and a hospital, among others. Other community leadership roles included serving as a director for her children's school board and serving on a congregational board.

She is married to Dr. William R. Roush, a chemist affiliated with Scripps Florida. They have two children: Rebecca, who is a Ph.D. student at Harvard Medical School and graduate of Wellesley College; and Jacob, who is a graduate of the Benjamin School and now attends Lawrence University. They have lived in Bloomington, Indiana, and Ann Arbor, Michigan, and now make their home in North Palm Beach.

Ms. Susan Namm Spencer, Past President

A resident of Jupiter (and Larchmont, New York), Susan graduated with a B.S. degree in Mass Communications from Emerson College. Her past work experience includes fifteen years of various Vice Presidential management and marketing assignments at Citibank/Citigroup. She also served as CEO and Marketing Director of two (New York and Connecticut) HMOs. Board assignments have included the YWCA of Greater New York City, The National Advisory Council of the Conservation Fund, Surprise Lake Camp and Emerson College. A strong advocate of children's programs, Susan participated in the Guardian Ad Litem volunteer program in Palm Beach County and continues her twelve-year, weekly commitment to the Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County, where she is a reading specialist for Head Start children.

Mr. Mason Walsh, Jr., Vice President

A resident of Jupiter (and Ligonier, Penn.), Mason graduated with a B.S. degree in Chemical Engineering from Pennsylvania State University and is a graduate of Harvard Law School. His past work experience includes the law firm of Reed Smith in Pittsburgh and the Richard K. Mellon Family and Foundation and Trust. He also is former Vice Chairman and trustee of Richard King Mellon Foundation.

He has served on the boards of the Alabama Coastal Land Trust, Wildlife-Wildlands Institute in Montana, The Nature Conservancy in Washington, D.C. (former Board Chairman, American Farmland Trust in Washington, D.C. (former Vice Chairman), and Western Pennsylvania Conservancy. He is the recipient of Gulf Oil Conservation Award and The National Park Foundation's George McAneny Historical Preservation Medal Award.

Mrs. Roseanne Williams

Roseanne was born in Massachusetts and currently resides on Jupiter Island and Cape Cod with her husband Dennis. She had a 20 year professional career in Human Relations working for Varian Associates and Digital Equipment in the U.S. and U.K. She attended Northeastern University and Salem State College.

In 1991, while living in Toronto, she decided to pursue a lifelong dream of becoming an artist. She studied at Sheridan College in Oakville, Ontario, and later the Cincinnati Academy of Art. In 1996 she and her husband moved to Florence, Italy where she continued her art studies with Alvaro Baragli, a well known Florentine artist.

Since becoming a Florida resident in 2005, she has become a member of the Jupiter Center Pink & White Ball Committee, and a Board member of the Jupiter Island Resident's Association. She is the founder of "Future Players, an after school music program at Banner Lake in Hobe Sound for children who are at risk.