Lighthouse Center for the Arts

As northern Palm Beach and southern Martin County's oldest and largest visual art museum, the Lighthouse Center for the Arts presents diverse and educational exhibitions, a school of art for adults and children, lectures, concerts, a museum and art supplies store, as well as our Artbridge Outreach program which provides educational art experiences for underserved populations. Founded by Christopher Norton in 1963, the Lighthouse Center is dedicated to educating and developing an appreciation of and interest in the arts for all ages.
