Stroll along the Rue de Café Beaux Arts at the Lighthouse ArtCenter Museum

Tequesta, FL January 25, 2012 - The Lighthouse ArtCenter Museum & School of Art announces the 48th Annual Beaux Arts Ball presents "Café Beaux Arts – Where Life Imitates Art," scheduled for Saturday, March 3, 2012, from 6:30 to 11 p.m. Co-Chairs Malcolm and Dorothy MacKenzie and their committee are taking a fresh approach to this important fundraising event by discarding the traditional black-tie gala and trading it for "bistro-attire" at a fun-filled, French-themed evening that will take place at the Lighthouse ArtCenter Museum. It will be an evening of gourmet dining, dancing and interactive artistic fun as guests step into Vincent Van Gogh's "Café Terrace at Night" painting and stroll along the Rue de Café Beaux Arts and enter the era of Art Café Society. "If the attendees have half as much as much fun as the committee has had planning it they will have a night to remember!" said Chair Malcolm MacKenzie.

Guests will be entertained by French performer Tangi Columbel and dine on delightful French-inspired hors d'oeuvres and dinner created by Lenore Pinello and Chef Joe at In The Kitchen. Guests will get in touch with their artistic side as they experience interactive happenings with artists creating paintings and sculptures.

Sponsors for the 48th Annual Beaux Arts Ball include Mission Capital Advisors, Northern Trust, South Florida Radiation Oncology, MorganStanley SmithBarney, Mason and Gil Walsh, Dr. David Lickstein MD FACS, DEX Imaging Inc. and Warren and Linda Lesser.

Committee members include Gerri Aurre, Carolyn Austin, Susan Bardin, Evelyne Bates, Julie Silk Beaumont, Andrea Cleveland, Cathy Helowicz, Mary Imle, Denise LeClair-Robbins and Rosalie Roush.
